

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH, EVALUATION & POLICY ANALYSIS

IREPA CAPABILITY STATEMENT

NAICS Codes

541720	541611	541620	541860
928120	541612	541820	611710

Company Overview

The Institute for Research, Evaluation & Policy Analysis, LLC (IREPA) is a private provider of consulting and research services to governmental, non-profit, and private sector entities. We offer innovative services for public, social and international policy research; program and project evaluation; and policy impact analysis. IREPA's team of social scientists, legislative experts, and educators employ over two decades of academic and policymaking experience in our consulting services.

IREPA's areas of public and international policy expertise include the following:

Domestic:

- Community Development
- Education
- Environment
- Housing
- Transportation
- Urban Policy

International:

- Civil Society
- Sustainable Development
- International Trade Policy

IREPA's quantitative and qualitative research expertise include the following:

- Case Studies/Country Studies
- Content/Document Analysis
- Focus Groups
- Interviews
- Literature Reviews
- Opinion/Satisfaction Surveys
- Policy Forecasts
- Research Designs & Strategies
- Statistical Analyses

Past Performances

Lakeland Housing Authority, Project: Hope VI Evaluation.	April, 2003 - May, 2005 CSS evaluation. Develop research instruments & data analysis.
Lakeland Housing Authority Resident Advisory Association, Project: HUD ROSS Grant Consultants.	August, 2004 - Present Grant & strategic board management & leadership training.
Shimberg Center for Affordable Housing, Projects: Tampa Housing Authority Belmont Heights Estates Economic Impact Study.	November, 2004 - Present Survey area residents & business owners; collect data on new business license; interview elected officials & community leaders.
University Area Community Development Corporation Anti-Crime Study.	Compile data on UACDC area funded programs; survey area business owners; compile crime statistics.

Executive Team

Kurt B. Young, Ph.D.	Principal & Chief Research Officer	Ph.D. in political science with expertise in international studies, public policy, and government. Over ten years of qualitative and quantitative research experience.
Lena Young-Green	Principal & Senior Program Director	Twenty years of experience in Florida State Legislature as a senior legislative assistant. Expertise in governmental operations, legislative policy research, and management of constituent affairs.
Arna Young	Principal & Education Policy Director	Ten years of experience as a director of youth and educational Programs. Extensive background in early childcare administration and federal early childhood development programs.